5.5 The Advertisement Material shall be deemed to have been delivered only if the conditions set out in Clauses 5.1, 5.2 and 5.3 have been met and the relevant Transmission instructions have been given.

5.6 In the event the Client submits Advertisement Material which does not comply with any of the requirements in this Standard Terms:-

5.6.1 RIM shall not be liable for any error or accidental misuse of the Advertisement Material during Transmission; or

5.6.2 RIM may cancel the booking and at its discretion impose 100% surcharge as if a cancellation had been made by the Client; or

5.6.3 RIM may dub and/or reformat the Advertisement Material into a format RIM requires for Transmission and the Client agrees to bear all costs, charges and expenses for such dubbing and/or reformatting work.

5.7 If RIM in its absolute discretion decides that the Advertisement Material is unsuitable, RIM shall notify the Client of an alternative schedule for provision of the Services and the Client shall submit alternative Advertisement Material in the terms of Clause 5.2.

5.8 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Standard Terms to the contrary, RIM reserves the right, in its sole and absolute discretion to:-

5.8.1 Decline to transmit any Advertisement Material without any reason in writing for so declining but in such event the Client shall not be liable to pay for any Advertisement Material not transmitted. In the event advance payment has been made by the Client the Client's account with RIM shall be credited with such amount and may be utilised towards payment of subsequent bookings by the Client;

5.8.2 Fade, edit or cut the Advertisement Material or any part thereof which in the opinion of RIM contains unsuitable material but the Client shall remain liable to RIM for the charges payable hereunder or by virtue of the Agreement or

5.8.3 Refuse to transmit any Advertisement Material containing references to more than one product and RIM shall not be liable to the Client or otherwise for any reason whatsoever.

5.9 RIM shall store the Advertisement Material for up to four (4) weeks from the date of the last Transmission. The Client shall be liable for storage charges determined by RIM if the Advertisement Material is not reclaimed by the Client at the end of the four (4) week period. Unless otherwise instructed in writing by the Client and the Client pays the storage charges, the Advertisement Material may be destroyed by RIM if not collected for a period of four (4) weeks from the date of the last transmission without further reference to the Client. RIM shall not be held liable for any loss or damage whatsoever to the Advertisement Material or any other property of the Client however caused whether in the studios, in transit or during storage.

6. Transmissions

6.1 RIM shall use its best endeavour to provide the Services and where such Services requires Transmission, to use its best endeavours to make the Transmission in accordance with the Transmission Schedule confirmed by RIM but RIM makes no representation or warranty that the Transmission Schedule shall be adhered to.

SURIA TERMS & CONDITIONS 2026 *Effective 1st January

6.2 In the event Transmission cannot be made in accordance with the Transmission Schedule on the day and in a segment of the rate arranged, RIM shall offer Transmission at some other time and/or some other date in the segment of the rate bearing comparable value as that originally booked. If the Client objects to the rescheduling of Transmission in this Clause 6.2, RIM shall be entitled to payment from the Client of fees and expenses reasonably incurred in respect of any Services then provided. In the event advance payment has been made by the Client, the Client's account with RIM shall be credited with such amount (less such fees and expenses aforesaid) and may be utilised towards payment of subsequent bookings by the Client.

6.3 RIM reserves the right, in its absolute discretion to:

6.3.1 reschedule the Transmission Schedule if conflicts arise between products and programmes including programme content or as a result of bookings for sponsorship;

6.3.2 reschedule the Transmission Schedule to give precedence to broadcast of any priority matter including but not limited to government announcements or for broadcast of live programmes;

6.3.3 pre-empt any airtime booked for the Services; without being liable to the Client or any other party for any reason whatsoever.

6.4 The Client shall notify the Head of Suria Revenue of any technical errors or incorrect materials used in a Transmission by RIM within twenty-four (24) hours of that Transmission, failing which RIM shall be deemed to have complied with its obligations under this Standard Terms and the Agreement.

6.5 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Standard Terms to the contrary, RIM may, in its sole and absolute discretion and without waiving any other rights hereunder , elect to suspend, pre-empt or otherwise interrupt the Services under any one or more of the following circumstances:

6.5.1 As a result of the Services or the content thereof, RIM or any of its Affiliates is, or is threatened to be (a) indicted, (b) charged as a criminal defendant, (c) investigated by law enforcement or other governmental authorities or (d) otherwise subjected to any action or proceeding by any governmental entity or representatives thereof;

6.5.2 At the direction of any governmental entity, jurisdiction or representative thereof; or

6.5.3 To protect the overall health and performance of the Radio Station, including without limitation, any testing, repair, adjustment, reconfiguration of any component or equipment of the Radio Station, and in such circumstances, the suspension, pre-emption or interruption shall not amount to or be deemed as a default of RIM's obligations pursuant to this Standard Terms. Upon resolution of the event giving rise to the foregoing suspension, pre-emption or interruption of the Services, and upon RIM receiving reasonable assurances from the relevant entities that such event will not again occur (in the sole and absolute discretion of RIM), then RIM shall discontinue the suspension, pre-emption or interruption of the Services.

6.6 All dates and times of Transmission shall be recorded in a transmission log maintained by RIM. The contents of this transmission log shall, in the event of any dispute whether in respect of the Client's account or otherwise except in the case of manifest error, be taken as final and conclusive proof of such Transmission.

6.7 All programme content on the Radio Station and the time of Transmission of such programme shall be entirely within the discretion of RIM and RIM shall not be liable to the Client for any failure to transmit any programme advertised in any publication or failure to transmit any programme at an advertised time.

6.8 The Client irrevocably authorises RIM and its associates (but RIM and its associates are not obliged) to broadcast or distribute the content of the Services (where relevant) on the Radio Station by any medium of carriage into any jurisdiction at any time and from time to time, and in the event RIM and its associates do so, the Client's warranties and indemnities and rights in this Standard Terms shall mutatis mutandis extend to the broadcast or distribution of the same. For the avoidance of doubt RIM shall not be obliged to account to the Client for any profits, revenue or gains made from such broadcast and distribution of content on the Radio Station.

7. Intellectual Property Rights

7.1 The Client acknowledges that all copyright, design rights and any other rights in the product of the Services provided by RIM excluding any Advertising Material provided by the Client shall remain the sole and exclusive property of RIM and this Standard Terms and the Agreement do not purport to grant, assign or transfer any rights to the Client.

7.2 In the event that the Client wishes to use any material/product arising from the Services of RIM for any purpose other than for the provision by RIM of the Services, then the prior written consent of RIM shall be required, together with an additional payment to be agreed between the parties.

7.3 The Client acknowledges that RIM shall be entitled to exploit any material created by RIM under this Standard Terms provided that all references to and any confidential information and material provided by the Client are deleted.

7.4 The Client acknowledges that RIM asserts its moral rights generally in respect of the product of the Services under this Standard Terms and the Agreement including any documents, artwork, and other material and in particular to be reasonably, prominently and clearly identified on all copies in all media. RIM asserts the right to object to derogatory treatment of its work provided in the Services whether addition to, deletion from, or alteration or adaptation which is a distortion or mutilation or is otherwise prejudicial to the honour or reputation of RIM.

7.5 Save as expressly provided in the Agreement, the provisions herein and in the Agreement shall not by implication be deemed to grant a licence to the Client to use the trademarks of RIM (collectively "Trade Marks") in any form of activity. The Client understands and agrees that monetary damages will not be sufficient to avoid or compensate for the unauthorized use of the Trade Marks and that injunctive relief would be appropriate to prevent any actual or threatened use of such Trade Marks.

8. Rate Structure

8.1 Unless otherwise agreed between RIM and the Client, the Rates charged for the Services shall be as set out in the Rate Card, as may be amended from time to time by RIM. A copy of the latest Rate Card of RIM is available herein (https://www.suria.my/pakej-pengiklanan/).

SURIA TERMS & CONDITIONS 2026 *Effective 1st January

8.2 RIM reserves the right to change the terms and conditions herein and/or Rates applicable to bookings already made or in executed Agreements with two (2) weeks' written notice to the Client. The Client shall, by serving written notice to RIM within seven (7) Business Days of the date of the notice of change, be entitled to cancel any booking affected by the change. The new Rates shall be effective and apply to the Services or parts thereof to be performed only after the end of RIM's notice of change period.
8.3 The provision of this Clause 8 shall be without prejudice to any special arrangements made by the parties in respect of the Rates.

9. Anti-Corruption

As far as the Client is aware, none of the Client and its directors, officers, employees, other representatives, or any persons or entities acting on its behalf including but not limited to any contractors or sub-contractors ("Representatives") has violated any applicable Anti-Corruption Laws (means laws, regulations or orders relating to anti-bribery or anti-corruption (governmental or commercial), which apply to the Client; which may include, without limitation, the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009, the Malaysian Penal Code and all national and international laws enacted to implement the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Convention on Combating Bribery of Foreign Officials in International Business Transactions); and neither the Client nor any of its Representatives has, prior to entering into the Agreement or any agreement entered into in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Agreement, in violation of the applicable Anti-Corruption Laws, offered, paid, promised to pay, or authorized the payment of any money, or offered, given, promised to give, or authorized the giving of anything of value, to any government official or to any person under circumstances where the Client or any of its Representatives knew or ought reasonably to have known (after due and proper enquiry) that all or a portion of such money or thing of value would be offered, given or promised, directly or indirectly, to a person:

(a) For the purpose of: (i) influencing any act or decision of a government official in their official capacity; (ii) inducing a government official or any person to do or omit to do any act in violation of their lawful duties; (iii) securing any improper advantage; (iv) Inducing a government official to influence or affect any act or decision of any governmental authority; or (v) assisting the Client or any of its Representatives in obtaining or retaining business for or with, or directing business to, the Client or any of its Representatives; or

(b) In a manner which would constitute or have the purpose or effect of public or commercial bribery, acceptance of or acquiescence in extortion, kickbacks or other unlawful or improper means of obtaining business or any improper advantage.
